GOOD BULBS

Are a part of successful flower growing as much as a good gardener. Any kind, every kind of bulbous flower a grower uses ought to be good. Cheap, carelessly-grown, poorly-cured bulbs—avoid them as you would the plague.

George C. Watson makes a specialty of good bulbs, and solicits your trade. Twenty-five years' experience in Europe and America, in this particular line, backs every order filled. If you desire a pleasant and profitable place to trade in Bulbs, Seeds or Sundries, try Watson, Philadelphia.

OUR MOTTO:

"Clean and round, heavy and sound, in every bulb a flower."

LILIMUM HARRISI (Conner Plantation)

IMPORTANT.—I am pleased to announce that the Harrisii bulbs I have contracted for this season promise to be of very superior quality and almost entirely free from disease. My representative visited all the bulb farms in Bermuda, and reports that the "Spanish Point Stock" (CONNER'S PLANTATION) was the best lot he saw. I consider myself fortunate in being able to offer my customers bulbs from this plantation. Having already booked heavily, would advise all who wish to secure this CONNER STOCK to send in their orders early.

JAPAN LONGIFLORUMS

My stocks of these are from the same reliable grower in Japan as heretofore, and are offered with the utmost confidence. Recent cable advices from Japan report damage from heavy rains and an advance in price on large bulbs; but I will book at the under-noted low rates while stocks hold out. The quality will be same high grade as before. All my customers were well satisfied last year. Mr. Westcott's letter on next page reflects the general verdict.

Early White Roman Hyacinths

There are few subjects more useful than the Roman Hyacinth for bouquets, corsage flowers, designs and floral work generally, and a good supply is indispensable to those who have a steady retail trade. While it is true that in some instances large batches grown and sold on the open market at wholesale have not paid the grower in recent years, yet our low prices this season should make them profitable even for this purpose.

Choice Mixed Dutch Hyacinths

My bulbs of these are from the best Hyacinth farms in Holland, and are of the Highest Grade, well ripened, sound and first-class in all respects. Suitable either for FORCING OR BEDDING.

These bulbs must not be confounded with the low-priced, inferior stock offered in some quarters, and largely found in auction rooms and in the hands of inexperienced dealers.

CHOICE NAMED DUTCH HYACINTHS

The superior size and fine quality of the spikes of the choicest selected-named varieties of Dutch Hyacinths command for them ready sale at good prices, and most florists, who have a pot plant trade, will find it will pay them eventually if they make an effort to work up a trade on a higher quality basis. The highest grade bulbs are coming into general use for pot plants among commercial florists. Only the best sorts have been included in the following list, and those which I offer may be depended on to produce good spikes and clear, distinct colors, thereby insuring an effective display.

Double Narcissus Von Zion

Narcissus (Daffodils)

These hold the affections of the flower-loving public like few other flowers; their popularity increases yearly, and the quantity now forced is enormous. Their graceful habit, delicate fragrance and variety of form and color are delightful, and they are always in demand for bouquets, vases, personal wear and floral work generally. Easily cultivated, quick and sure bloomers. The low cost of the bulbs and the increasing demand should warrant liberal planting.

NEW SPIREA "GLADSTONE"

A number of new Spireas have been on trial recently and some of them are quite promising. The variety named "Gladstone" seems to us to be the best improvement. It is larger than Compacta Multiflora, or Astilboides Floribundu, and free-flowering than either. Well-grown plants sold readily last Easter at $3.00 per dozen, while the others were only bringing $3.00 and $4.00 per dozen. We offer in limited quantity for November delivery at $15.00 per 100; $2.00 per dozen.

JACKMANI SUPERBA	GIPSY QUEEN

Two year pot grown plants, (imported,) at $18.00 per 100, in the following choice sorts : JACKMANI HENRYI KOSTER MME. BARON VEILLARD

The above are grown in Belgium and are strong, well rooted stock, which will give the best satisfaction. November delivery.

DIELYTRA (BLEEDING HEART)

One of the best plants for forcing or making a fine display in the herbaceous border. Besides being easily grown, few plants are more useful. We furnish divided clumps in November, each with about 5 to 7 shoo's, large enough for a six inch pot. The soil should be turf, leaf mould, and sand—one part each. Place in a temperature of 55° to 60° for a few weeks. After they have grown about one foot gradually reduce the heat. They flower well in a cool greenhouse once they are that length. After done flowering, place on any bare part of stage for the graceful fern-like foliage. Every florist should have a good stock of this for outside also; as it is one of the very best and most popular "hardy plants" in cultivation.

Watson's XX Berlin Valley

Lily of the Valley.

I have had careful tests made during recent years of pips from the best growers in England, France, Denmark, Holland and Germany, and find that the Berlin pips are the best all round, consequently I have every confidence in offering "WATSON'S XX BERLINS" as the best on the market. I pay my grower extra money to get the pick of the stock, and know that they will give my customers satisfaction. Considering the quality of the stock my prices are very reasonable. The cases contain 2500 pips each. Ready for delivery about November 20th.

The Freesia is one of the most profitable bulbs we know of for the commercial florist. The bulbs are ready for delivery in July, and can be planted at intervals, so as to give a succession during the season. The bulbs are now remarkably cheap, and the flowers are exceedingly popular, and command ready sale at all times.

I am pleased to say my supplies this season are the largest and finest I ever had, and the prices the lowest.

PHILADELPHIA, February 14th, 1900.

Mr. G. C. Watson,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear Sir:

I must congratulate you on your Lily of the Valley. I never had such fine stock, they realized from $4. to $5 per hundred. I had spikes of flowers from ten to twelve inches long. I imported some Valley direct and in comparison with yours it was a failure. I can assure you that you will get my order for next season.

Very truly yours,

C.W.Cox

Watson's English Mushroom Spawn The Brand.

As is well known, good spawn is one of the chief foundation stones in successful mushroom culture and should receive the first attention. Much bet'er spawn can be got to-day than twelve years ago, when the WATSON BRAND was first put on the market, but this improvement has been brought about largely through the educative influence and the liberal advertising given to a superior article. Although spawn closely approaching the WATSON in quality can be got from one or two sources to-day, it is still true that none of them are equal in two important respects: (1) yield and (2) earliness. The WATSON has been tried again and again alongside the most highly lauded, and has proved the heaviest cropper, and the earliest to come into bearing. Another reform in which the WATSON BRAND was the pioneer is the cost of spawn. Absurdly high prices were the rule until a more reasonable and equitable figure was forced on the most conservative by the example of a first-class brand being sold at a fair price. Notwithstanding the keen competition of to-day, the WATSON BRAND figures are as low as any reliable stock can be bought for, while the quality is of the same high standard as heretofore. This being granted, it follows that mushroom growers should procure their spawn from the pioneer in "a good article at a fair price" and take no chances with importers of less experience.

Note my low prices: 25 pounds, $2.00; 50 pounds, $3.50; 100 pounds, $7.00. Special rates for larger quantities. By mail, postpaid, per brick, 25c., 5 for $1.00.

Gardening Under Glass.

The following select list of sorts good for forcing, represents the approved varieties in use by successful market growers at the present time. The choicest strains only are offered, regardless of expense. A dollar in the cost of the seed is of small importance when the success or failure of a crop is at stake.

BAILEY'S FORCING BOOK.

In this connection I have pleasure in endorsing Mr. Bailey's new book. It is a practical and up-to-date work, and will be a great help to those who grow or intend to grow vegetables under glass. Contains full instructions how to grow Tomatoes, Cucumbers, Lettuce and other vegetables. I have made arrangements with the publishers and offer same at publisher's price, $1.00 postpaid. The book contains 226 pages and 88 illustrations. C. J. Pennock says: "It would have saved us dollars and dollars if we could have had it a few years ago. Every grower should possess this book."

all over the plant. The first cluster is borne very low on the stem. Color, a deep scarlet; form, admirable, of good size, and the fruit very solid and producing very little seed. Watson's Specially Selected Strain; Packet, \$0.15; $\frac{1}{4}$ oz., \$0.40; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., \$0.75; 1 oz., \$1.50.

Holmes' Supreme Forcing Tomato; received the highest award from the Royal Horticultural Society at Chiswick Tomato Trials, 1900. Round, scarlet, medium size, heavy cropper, succeeds best with good culture and liberal feeding. Original imported packets, $0.25.

FROGMORE SELECTED.

Frogmore Selected Forcing Tomato; a free cropping, free setting, medium sized variety, very uniform and smooth in outline, almost round in shape, solid and very firm; color, clear, bright scarlet, with very deep flesh and remarkably small seed space. Awarded a first-class certificate by the Royal Horticultural Society. Some of the large growers for the metropolitan markets prefer this sort above all others. Original imported packets, $0.50.

Lorillard Forcing Tomato (True); when it can be got true this variety is still in the front rank. Watson's strain is saved specially by the originator, Jno. G. Gardner, and is guaranteed pure and true to type. Packet, \$0.15; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., \$0.50; 1 oz., \$1.00.

Pepper's Prolific Forcing Tomato; a new variety raised by W. Robertson, gardener to Jno. W. Pepper, a wealthy Philadelphian, at his country seat near Jenkintown, Pa., and is pronounced by Mr. Gardner and other experts to be a valuable addition to the limited list of good forcing varieties. It will set better than any other variety during the dull winter months—an invaluable trait which will be fully appreciated by experienced growers. Fruit, scarlet; oblong, deep and solid. It is an enormous bearer and of excellent quality. Seeds will be distributed fall, 1901. Orders booked now, $0.50 per trade packet.

Mayflower Forcing Tomato; this well-known variety is highly recommended, especially for Spring Sowing. Watson's Extra Selected Strain, packet, \$0.15; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., \$0.25; 1 oz., \$0.50.

FALL SOWING OF GRASS SEEDS

In this latitude, Fall Sowing (that is from about August 25th to September 25th) of grass seeds for lawns and permanent pastures is on the increase; in fact many expert gardeners claim it to be the best time of the year. Half a bushel of Seed Oats or Timothy is usually sown per acre as a mother to the tender grass.

Grass Seeds are one of my chief specialties. I have devoted much time and made many experiments to determine the best varieties for various purposes, especially in the formation of Lawns and Pleasure Grounds where permanence and a close green turf are the great desideratum. My mixture for this purpose consists of ten varieties:—Kentucky Blue Grass, Sheep's Fescue, Fine-leaved Fescue, Hard Fescue, Crested Dogtail, Sweet Vernal, Meadow Foxtail, Poa Nemoralis, Florin or Creeping Bent and Perennial Ryegrass, blended together in proper proportions to produce a fine green lawn during the whole season. This is my best mixture and there is none better even at fancy figures. Handling grass seeds in large quantities I am able to give my customers the benefit of close figures. I designate this mixture the
